Re: Conduct of Robert E. O'Neill in the Office of Independent Counsel's Prosecution of United States of America v. Deborah Gore Dean, Criminal No. 92-181-TFH (D.D.C.)

Dear Mr. Wilson:

Enclosed find a copy of a letter of this date to Acting Assistant Attorney General John C. Keeney concerning the referenced matter, as well as a copy of a letter to Michael E.
Shaheen, Jr., Counsel for the Office of Professional Responsibility, responding to his letter of January 30, 1996. In the letter to Mr. Keeney, in addition to providing additional information concerning this matter, I explain why he has not been relieved of his individual responsibilities in overseeing the conduct of his subordinate attorneys simply because the Office of Professional Responsibility has concluded that no action is warranted. The points apply as well to you in your oversight of the conduct of Robert E. O'Neill.

Sincerely,

/s/ James P. Scanlan
